Dave's Lines...One Last Year!

Sunday as I preached at First, Watertown while filling in for Interim Gary Rickman I almost felt like I was in character in a Karen Kingsbury children's book Let Me Hold You a Little Longer. The book is about the lasts of our lives...the last game played, the last day of school...after 47 years of ministry this is the final chapter.

My prayer is that God will use me as He sees fit. Although I am retiring I am not quitting. In fact, January is filled with open doors. I'm "filling in" on Sundays the entire month; Wednesdays I'm helping a church with her kids ministry; students return January 18 to campus and BCM gets rolling again. After an impactful fall I'm expecting God to continue to touch lives for eternity and I get to hang out throughout the week with "kids" on campus! On top of this I get to help an Hispanic church develop her youth ministry. PLUS, I'm still your missionary!!!

As we get into 2022 I am excited about our Association sending two young ladies for a summer of working with missionaries in Europe. Our Associational once again gets to staff All Nations Camp for the TBMB and what an all-star team God has given us from our churches! Our spring, summer, and fall day camps we have some new twists and I get one final time of sharing Sunday School Charlie.

Plus, there is Evangelism Rally and participation, Bible drills, VBS training, WMU events (our WMU is the BEST WMU anywhere); and much, much more. What a privilege it is to spend one last year as your missionary!

Upcoming Church Events

Sunday, January 9: Victory Baptist Church

A reception for Chuck Groover from 4:00 – 6:00

Chuck recently retired as founding and senior pastor of Victory after 21 years.

Sunday, January 16: Hillcrest Baptist Church

Ordination Service for Travis Humes 6:00 pm

Ordination council met in December and recommended Travis to be ordained to the gospel ministry.

He works with the students at Hillcrest.

Special Needs Fellowship

Cost: $260/participant

Camp Director: Dave Shelley
Camp Pastor: Ben Graham
Camp Worship: Jacob Lannom

NOTE: If interested a group of church leaders are going to check out the RANCH/camp site on Monday, January 10. We will leave early and return by mid-afternoon. Call Associational Office if you want to go with us.

More information in February's newsletter – one advantage of doing our own camp is the connections we make and the fact that we can do camp what is BEST for us and the impact made on young lives.

Cumberland university will begin classes on January 18th and Baptist Collegiate Ministries will kick off the semester on January 25th with free lunch Tuesday and a worship night. A new Bible study will begin within the same small groups as last semester to keep the close community that has been built. If your church would like to sponsor a free lunch Tuesday or donate snacks for sports travel bags, please let Darrin or Kezney know. We are looking forward to a semester of being present on our campus and are expectant of all the Lord will do!
