Dave's Lines...One Last Summer

Fifty-one years later and my final one as your missionary I get to spend most of my summer days with precious boys and girls. Through the years God has used these camps and day camps to make an eternal difference in so many lives. Recently I was sent a Facebook link that had fifty year old individuals commenting about the impact it had in their lives.

I get to start this summer with Hollie Miller in Sweetwater. Over 150 children are pre-registered. From there we go to New Salem Association, TBMB camps, Lebanon, Norene, Alexandria and Mt. Juliet before wrapping up with our Associational children's camp at Longview Ranch. We have a great team in place for camp with Ben Graham, Jesse McKay, Rachel Presley, Jacob Lannon and a group of outstanding adults.

What a final blessing it is for me to work with Bradly Vickers for another summer together. Five years ago he just wanted to be available. God took His availability and changed his plans for schooling in order to use him in a mighty way not only this summer but in many summers to come. I am glad to pass the torch and my equipment to him. The future looks bright in God using day camps to change lives.

Thank you for the open doors that you have provided for me to invest in young lives.
