From Scott's Heart

Don't tell anybody, but I love Christmas! I love the lights, the music (all but the Christmas shoes song. Please don't make me listen to it), the Charlie Brown Christmas special! It really is the most wonderful time of the year. This is the season we celebrate the true gift that keeps giving, King Jesus. The greatest gift ever given was when the Father gave us His only begotten Son, God with us, who would take all our sin to the cross and be punished in our place. What a gift! What a God! What a wonderful reason to celebrate by falling on our knees in worship and surrender!

I also want to point out that this beautiful season isn't always beautiful for everybody. In your circle there are people who are grieving a recent loss this season. This may be the first Christmas without mom or spouse, away from friends or family, or some other circumstance which brings bitterness to this beauty. Let's do what Christ followers do and love them fiercely, bring them to our tables and into our lives. Let us not celebrate alone, this awesome season. Let's not let anybody suffer alone in a bitter season either. I guess all I'm saying is, let's keep Christ in Christmas by looking hard for opportunities to live like Christ this Christmas.

I love serving you,

Scott Brown, PhD

Greetings WCBA friends and family!

This past month at BCM has been a busy, yet a great one! Since the last newsletter, BCM has hosted several events! We ended October by serving at the Cumberland University Fall Fest, hosting a game, face painting, and giving out candy to kids. On Halloween, we hosted a BCM Halloween party on the front lawn. We had a bonfire, sang worship songs, and passed out candy to Trick or Treaters. On November 7th, we participated in the UNITE event. The following week, we hosted our own Night of Worship and prayer, we were blessed to see many new and returning faces as we spent time in prayer filled worship and thanksgiving. Our BCM Band had the privilege of leading worship for a weekend fall retreat with the Immanuel Baptist Youth. This was a huge blessing and privilege for us to be a part of! After Thanksgiving, we will be closing out our semester with one last BCM Lunch, a Christmas Party and a Pancake night, all with the goal of reaching new students for Christ! Speaking of Thanksgiving, we are thankful to each and every church who continues to love and support our ministry through prayer and provision. Without your help, our ministry would not be possible! If you want to be a part of what God is doing on the campus of Cumberland University next semester, we are in need of lunches to be provided every week of the semester! Please email myself @ cumberland.bcm01@gmail.com to sign up. Alternatively, if you would like to hear what God is doing through the BCM ministry, or have the BCM lead worship at your church, email myself or Pastor Scott Brown. We are so looking forward to a great spring semester, with many lunches, events, service opportunities, and bible studies ahead! Please continue to keep us in your prayers as we continue to follow what God is doing here at Cumberland.

Sincerely,

Nathan Clark
