From Scott's Heart

Psalm 37:1 begins, "Fret not yourself because of evildoers." I noticed something the other day reading this. It says, fret not yourself. So many times I sacrifice my joy and peace in Jesus for anxiety, worry, fretting over things that are not mine to fret over. Fret not yourself, it says. As I read that, I realized once more that it wasn't other things but me who was fretting me. I am the problem! Does that make sense? So often we spend time fretting ourselves over things that won't matter in eternity, things that aren't even our business if we're honest. Every time we go to fretting ourselves over things, let us instead choose to "seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness." Let us keep our eyes on Jesus for, "You will keep Him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on You, for He trusts in You."

Trust Jesus,

on your own understanding;
In all your ways acknowledge Him,
And He shall direct your paths.

Hello WCBA family!

January was a great month for BCM! We had a game night at the BCM house, 2 lunches, and many more events! We also hosted a movie night, our kickoff event, Neon New Year, and the BCM Band led worship at Mount Olivet Baptist Church, thank you again for having us! We are looking forward to a very full month of february and are excited for the semester to come! With mission trips, worship nights, lunches, and other events, we are always in need of prayer as we aim to win our campus for Christ! Thank you again for your support!

If you are wondering how you can best serve BCM, we are desperately in need of BCM lunches to be provided! We have a whole semester ahead and so far there are very few lunch spots covered. The reason BCM lunches are such a huge blessing to us is that it is often our very first interaction with students on campus. It provides an open door connection to students who we most likely will not otherwise encounter. They give us an opportunity to sit across the table and talk with new students, which is always a win as we aim to move them closer to Christ! If you have any questions about BCM lunches and how you can get involved or if I can assist you in any way, please email me at cumberland.bcm01@gmail.com.

Sincerely, Nathan Clark
