

Missional Messenger

ISSUE THREE

MARCH 2026

Not long ago I was feeling very ennui, just down over so many things without reason. It was something I heard which pulled me out of it and has been a constant encouragement since. All through the Bible there is only one thing we are told to control, ourselves. We can exert influence, speak up, act on things in our power but the only thing in my control is my own attitude and actions. While we can't control even what happens to us, we can and should control how we respond. When we respond with fear or frustration, what a wasted opportunity that is. Rather, we can respond in prayer with faith that God is good and He is wise and, no matter what occurs, that truth is unchanging. What a great God we have and how good it is to be His children!

Greetings WCBA friends!

Somehow, we are already halfway through the spring semester here at Cumberland University. Students on campus are currently facing the challenges of midterms and all of the stress that comes with them but are excited about the upcoming spring break! February was a great month, despite the fluctuating weather. In addition to our weekly lunches and bible studies, we have had some awesome events such as galentines, a guys bowling night, went to the rend collective concert, a game night, climbing excursion, coffee cart, & LOTS of planning for spring break & summer missions! As we continue through our series on relationships, Single, Dating, Engaged, Married, by Ben Stuart, students are being challenged in their faith and encouraged to put God first in their relationships. We are looking forward to concluding this study at the end of the semester. Our students are also preparing for summer missions and are in need of support! If you or your church has interest in providing financial resources as means for our students to serve on missions, email us at cumberland.bcm01@gmail.com. When you receive this email, we most likely will be on our spring break trip and if you have a second, we would really appreciate a prayer for safety and God's continued movement in our ministry. Thank you!

Please email cumberland.bcm01@gmail.com with any more questions!

Sincerely, Nathan Clark
Director, Cumberland BCM
